The U.S. And Israel Are Planning Another Attack On Iran

An Extremely Sensitive Source has conveyed to me, that China has successfully transported "Over 800" missiles to Iran, to be used to defend against Israel.

The source did not (or could not) indicate the type or range of missile, but clearly stated "they can reach all of Israel."

Over the pat ten days, scattered and infrequent "chatter" on Intel Circuits has been claiming that the US and Israel are planning another attack upon Iran. One such claim from a different source deemed VERY reliable, stated "there are 31 separate targets inside Iran to be hit." The source did not reveal what those targets are or where they are.

I know this is all very vague. That aggravates me, as much as I suppose it aggravates you. But I'm not in the Intel Community anymore, and there is great risk to the people who are, if they reveal something they shouldn't.

So I have to accept what I get, figure out if it is intentional disinformation, try to corroborate it, and if I can, I report only that which will not reveal sources or methods, or endanger the lives of my countrymen who are still in the Intel Community... It's not easy.

Russia Says The Ukrainian Front Will Collapse In 2 to 3 Months

Russia does not intend to comply with Donald Trump's ultimatum to end the war with Ukraine, which expires this Friday.

According to Intel sources, Vladimir Putin is confident in Russia's victory, as the General Staff of the Armed Forces of the Russian Federation stated that the Ukrainian front "will fall in two to three months."

— The President of the Russian Federation "does not want to anger" Trump, but Russia's military goals are more important than improving relations with the West.

— The Kremlin is not sure that Trump will fulfill his ultimatum at all, as he "has threatened before," but then took no action.

— Moscow does not believe that China will stop buying Russian oil.

— Putin is "concerned" about the deterioration of relations with the US, but "cannot afford to end the war just because Trump wants it."

The sources also report that the negotiations between Russia and Ukraine in Istanbul "have no real content, except for talks about humanitarian exchanges."